

PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Tyler of La Grange, Ill., announced the engagement of their oldest daughter, Louise Brooks, to Mr. Ralph Corson Llewellyn of La Grange at a luncheon at their home, 408 So. Walpole Ave., September seventeenth, at one o'clock.

Miss Vera Arnold of Newport, N. H., was a week end guest of her mother, Mrs. Lena Arnold, returning to her home Monday morning.

Miss Margaret Long has returned from the Sunset Hill house where she has spent the summer.

Mrs. Myles Gilman spent last week with her sister in Lyndonville.

Mrs. Earnest Clark and two children have returned to their home in Brooklyn. Kenneth Flint accompanied his sister and will enter school there.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Stetson spent part of last week with Dr. Stetson's parents in Thetford.

Mr. and Mrs. William Trainor spent last week with Mr. Trainor's brother and sister at White River Junction.

Miss Pauline Wallace has gone to Brooklyn to take a course in kindergarten at Pratt Institute.

Lewis Parmelee is the new clerk at Flint's Drug Store.

Miss Gertrude S. Menut is spending two weeks in Brunswick Springs and Colebrook, N. H.

Miss Mildred Whitmarsh has returned to her home in North Attleboro, Mass., after spending two months with Mrs. H. C. Douglass.

Cards have been received by St. Johnsbury friends announcing the marriage at Portland on Wednesday of Maurice Lovejoy of Union, Me., and Miss Ethel Murphy of Portland.

Mrs. Flora E. Lovejoy was in Portland for her son's wedding.

Mrs. J. C. Gray is spending the week with friends in Rutland.

Mrs. Miles Bowles of Sugar Hill visited in town the last of the week.

Miss Mabel Silsby and Miss Beatrice M. Potts went Saturday to Holyoke, Mass., in the former's automobile.

Miss Katherine Potts who is a student nurse in Holyoke City hospital will return with Miss Silsby and Miss Beatrice Potts will spend 10 days with college friends at Mount Holyoke.

Allen Knight returned Saturday from Alberta, Can., where he has been for the past six weeks working at harvesting.

Pearl Henderson has accepted a position with the express company. President Rustis of the Boston & Maine Railroad made a short stop in town Friday on his way to Boston from Swanton.

Mrs. E. F. Smythe was in Barnet for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Abbott were guests of Orleans friends over Sunday.

Mrs. L. N. Smythe and Louis N. Smythe, 2nd, have been visiting in Ashland, N. H.

Mrs. Robert Gordon is recovering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. W. E. Christie and son Douglas have returned from a visit in North Hatley and other Canadian towns.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gordon of Sutton visited their son, Robert Gordon, on Friday.

Howard Jenne attended the state fair last week with an exhibit of fish from the U. S. hatchery.

Miss Sara Tappan of Medfield, Mass., visited relatives here the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Emery have returned from Wentworth, N. H., and moved to Caledonia street.

Miss Isabel Mitchell is spending a few days in town.

Miss Gladys Reed has returned from Bethlehem, N. H.

Mrs. Mae Blodgett has returned from Boston.

Azarde Demers of Whitefield, N. H., spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Julian Demers.

Miss Clara Wiggitt of Sherbrooke, Que., spent a part of last week with her sister, Mrs. T. W. R. Aldrich.

Miss Hester Stains of New York is a guest of Mrs. H. A. Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Peck were in White River Junction last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Spaulding, Everett and Vera Montgomery and Miss Laing spent Sunday at the White mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lewis and children were at Danville over Sunday.

J. H. Moore and Charles Fisk motored to Eretton Woods last Sunday.

John Wilkie has resigned his position at the Avenue house and intends to start an express business on his return from Boston where he went Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Wilkie, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bigelow and daughter, Gladys, attended the state fair at White River Junction.

Miss Margaret Taylor has been spending a few days with relatives on Spring street.

Miss Jennie Mackay, formerly of St. Johnsbury, now of Greenfield, Mass., was a business visitor in town during the past week.

Miss Portia McGill of East Barnet, Miss Marjorie Nelson of Ryegate and Mrs. Harry Davis of Danville were in town to attend the progressive shower given Miss Beatrice Potts.

Mrs. Mary Packer is spending the week in West Burke.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cowles and Mrs. Ellen M. Gile spent Sunday in Peacham.

Miss Myrtle Underwood and Miss Margaret Robie were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Morrill over Sunday.

E. O. Clark is spending a week with old friends in West Charleston and Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Moore are enjoying an auto trip through northern Vermont and Canadian points.

Mrs. Robert Davis was called to Woonsocket, R. I., last week by the illness and death of a sister.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cable and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cable of Lyndonville spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. L. E. Cable.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Sherburn moved last week into their pleasant new home on Portland street.

Hector Gingras of Manchester, N. H., visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Grace Francis and daughter, Arline, spent Sunday at Rocky Hill Farm, the guests of Mrs. A. K. Power.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hastings of West Danville spent Sunday with relatives in town.

George Hinman has returned to Amherst college to begin his Sophomore year.

Miss Anna Clark was confined to the house last week with a sprained ankle.

Mrs. Julia Mitchell who is at St. Johnsbury hospital is improving.

Mrs. Wendell P. Stafford and daughter Ruth of Washington, D. C., who have been passing the summer at Greensboro are in town for two weeks. Gladys Stafford and Edward have returned to Washington.

Mrs. C. A. Cramton went Monday night to New York to meet Dr. Cramton for a short vacation.

Miss Frederica Gibson and Miss Katherine Morrison are visiting in Worcester, Mass., for two weeks.

Mrs. James A. Grady has been visiting in Fitch Bay, P. Q.

Mrs. Carl M. Morris and two children, Lindorf and Evelyn, spent Wednesday in Newbury, the guests of Mrs. Charles E. Gage.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Corfield and two daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curtis are being welcomed home after a summer spent at Weyley New Cannock, Staffordshire, England.

Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Poole Grint spent Thursday at Sugar Hill as guests of Miss Della I. Griffin.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fairbanks, Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Merrill, Rev. and Mrs. P. D. Moore and Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Richards were at Danville last week Tuesday to attend the county ministerial meeting.

St. Johnsbury friends will be interested to know that Major John Mar-

THE FOX-TAION CIRCUIT

Colonial Theatre

ONE NIGHT MONDAY, SEPT. 28

The Season's most notable Comedy Event.
THE ELLIS MAY CO. Presents
The Participating Comedy of London at Theatre

N. Y. Times: "Had the audience gasping with surprise or wondering what would happen next."

New York's Biggest Laughing
Success

THE MISLEADING LADY

A Farce in Three Acts

By Paul Dickey and Charles Goddard

100 NIGHTS IN BOSTON

400 NIGHTS AT THE FULTON THEATRE NEW YORK

N. Y. Mail: "Sends its audience into uncontrollable bursts of mirth."

Direct from The Colonial Theatre, Boston
A Powerful Comedy Complete Production Car Load of Scenery
Special Electrical Effects
You Must See Napoleon (The Nut) He's a Scream
By Special arrangement Mgr. Eaton has arranged to have this high class attraction play at prices in reach of all
Seat Sale opens, Friday, Sept. 25
Prices, 25, 50, 75c Boxes, $1.00

COMING

Oct. 2 and 3

The big Musical Comedy Success

THE TROUBLEMAKERS

Select Cast Beauty Chorus

Musical Novelties

Special Popular Prices

First the husband of Cordelia Nevers, St. J. A. '89 was promoted to a brigadier generalship in the English army at the beginning of the war and is now stationed at Canterbury in charge of the home defense force although he expects to be sent to the front any time. Mrs. Marriott is at her home in Weybridge, England.

Miss Mary Ranney who underwent an operation for gall stones at Brighton ten days ago was reported in a very critical condition yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Buhrman of Texarkana, Ark., have been spending several days with Miss Rossie Weeks on their way from a summer spent at Brunswick Springs.

Miss Mary Redington left Saturday for Mt. Holyoke College where she is general secretary of the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Edna Kimball Aris of Barre has been engaged as trimmer at the Weeks-Reed store.

Miss Ruby Campbell of New York spent last week with Mrs. S. J. Somerville on the way to her home in Barton.

Forrest Flagg Owen has resigned his position at the Fairbanks factory and left Saturday to accept a position with a lumber company in Drew, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Little motored to Dixville Notch Sunday.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Pythian Building. Sunday morning service, 10:45. Subject, "Reality." The reading room is in the same building and is open daily, except Sunday, from 2:30 to 5 p. m.

Church of the Messiah. The Ladies Aid society meets tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. William Miller, 28 Railroad street. If the next Sunday is a cold day so that a fire is needed the morning service and Sunday school will be held in G. A. R. hall through the courtesy of the G. A. R. Post; otherwise the service will be held in the church.

First Baptist church, Sunday, subjects, 10:30 a. m., "Our Bonded Warehouse"; 7:00 p. m., "Were the Wise Men Wise?" Wednesday evening, mid-week service, Friday 8:00 p. m., rehearsal of the glee club in the chapel, Monday, 7:00 p. m., Boy Scouts.

The pastor of the North Church, Rev. F. B. Richards, having previously had extended experience in the use of the steropticon, is planning to employ it frequently at the Sunday evening services. The first of these popular services will be held next Sunday evening at 7:30, and the subject will be "The Political World at Christ's Time." The public are invited.

All women of the North church and congregation, especially those who have recently come to town are cordially invited to the chapel Friday afternoon from three to five. It is hoped all women will plan to be present and do their part toward making the afternoon a social one.

The reorganized glee club of the First Baptist church are now rehearsing for a play to be given later.

Free Baptist church. At the Sunday morning service the pastor will speak on "The Resurrection as Revealed by the Bible." All the members of the Sunday school should be present next Sunday as the contest report will be given and plans for its celebration perfected. Prayer and business meetings will be held this Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Last Thursday evening about a dozen of the friends of Miss Beatrice Potts gathered at the home of Miss Elizabeth Peck to "shower" the bride-to-be. A contest of ghost stories was held, in which Miss Potts was awarded the prize, a silk kimono.

Refreshments of hot chocolate and sandwiches were served, and then the guests were informed that the next course would be served on Boynton avenue with Miss Mabel Silsby. On arriving there all were set to work to untravelling an immense cobweb in order to secure supper partners. Ice cream and cake were then served, after which Miss Potts was again showered with a table cloth and a dozen napkins falling from a heart suspended in the middle of the room.

Just as the girls were departing Miss Potts was warned to look out for rain and presented with an umbrella well filled with miscellaneous gifts. Miss Potts insisted that such a progressive shower was indeed a deluge, though every one enjoyed it from first to last.

Mrs. Warren Wright entertained a few ladies last Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Gates' birthday.

A few lady friends of Mrs. W. H. Jenks spent a very pleasant evening with her in her new home on Mt. Pleasant street last Friday night.

The Outlook club meets this afternoon with Mrs. Sarah Hovey.

Miss Winifred Drew entertained the Cornus club Monday night and one feature of the entertainment was a corn roast.

LUNENBURG
Mrs. Vina Dean, who has been with Mrs. W. G. King at Maplehurst several weeks, has returned to her home in Whitefield.

The Severyn farm at the foot of Mount Tug has been purchased by Hubbard Brothers and Ernest Hubbard and family will take possession in the near future.

Mrs. Fisher and daughters who have spent the summer in town return to their home in Attleboro, Mass., this week. Miss Ana Cole returns to the hotel to do dining room work in place of Flora Fisher.

Archie Holden and auto party from Groveton were in town Sunday.

Phillip Sugg who is attending school at Montpelier Seminary spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Adeline Sugg.

Franklin Bell who is engaged as chauffeur by the Peabody party of Boston was at home Friday for a few hours. The party will spend several weeks in this vicinity making their headquarters at the Mountain View, Whitefield.

The Ladies Aid of the Congregational church spent a very pleasant afternoon at the Riverside farm with Mrs. Franklin Bell and Miss Bell last Friday.

Father Dame held daily services in St. Leo's church in preparation for confirmation which will be celebrated on Monday, Sept. 28th.

SOUTH RYEGATE
Rev. S. S. Martin Married His Daughter to George Crowe—Personals

A quiet wedding took place Thursday evening when George Crowe of this place and Miss Grace Martin of Plainville, Conn., were united in marriage at the home of Mr. Crowe.

Rev. S. S. Martin, the father of the bride, performed the ceremony assisted by Rev. V. Ziegler, only a few near relatives being present. Mr. Crowe is a popular and much esteemed citizen and Mrs. Crowe a former successful teacher and for the last year housekeeper for Mr. Crowe, has also many friends here.

J. D. McAllister went Wednesday evening to Boston to spend a week with relatives.

The two village ministers returned from their vacations in time to occupy their respective pulpits Sunday.

Miss Nellie Bone is in Brightbrook hospital at St. Johnsbury undergoing treatment.

Miss Jean Farquharson, Miss Mary Heald and Margaret and Ernest Longmore are attending high school at Wells River.

Mrs. R. A. Randall and little grandson, Donald McClelland of South Framingham, Mass., are occupying their rooms in W. T. George's house for a few weeks.

Mrs. Norman Morrison of Barre, who has been visiting her father, George Crowe, went Saturday to Barnet to spend the week-end with her friend, Mrs. Harvey Phelps.

Miss Mabel C. Hall attended the funeral of Mrs. William Brock at South Newbury, Thursday.

Mrs. F. E. Ingraham and daughter Celia went Thursday to Bellows Falls to visit relatives. They took in the state fair on the way.

The Birthday club gave Mrs. V. Ziegler a surprise party at her home Monday afternoon. They also called on Mrs. William Terry Tuesday afternoon.

F. J. Tewksbury is preparing the foundation for the new house which he proposes to build on the corner lot in the village, known as the G. L. Hall lot.

Mrs. Inez H. Knowlton

MILLINERY

95 Main St.

WEATHER

At Bingham's Drug Store, for the week ending Sept. 21.

	Highest	Lowest
Tuesday	71	39
Wednesday	75	39
Thursday	76	40
Friday	75	41
Saturday	68	38
Sunday	71	36
Monday	80	46

AN OBVIOUS ERROR

It's an obvious error indeed—and one easily avoided that you will make in not ordering your immediately. Prices will be higher and deliveries delayed if you "put off" buying coal until later. The cleanest, best quality coal at the lowest market prices always at

COAL

E. T. & H. K. Ide

Bay St.

RICKER'S LOCAL MARKET

The receipts at W. A. Ricker's Market for the week ending Sept. 21, 1914, were:

Poultry, 800 lbs. @ 10 cents.
Lamb, 417 @ 4 to 6 cents.
Hogs, 120 @ 8 to 8½ cents.
Cattle, 211 @ 2 to 7 cents.
Calves, 500 @ 3 to 7½ cents.
Milk cows, 38 @ $40 to $75.

RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst our beloved brother, Dana L. Badger, a charter member of Danville Grange, No. 320, Father of Husbandry, be it

Resolved, That, though the passing over of an honest and industrious brother and a kindly, sympathetic and helpful neighbor is a sad loss to us, yet we realize that the loss sustained by her, who had lived in such helpful and loving companionship with him for twenty-five years, is much greater than ours. Therefore,

Resolved, That we extend to her our heartfelt sympathy in the hour of her bereavement. Be it further,

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning, and that these resolutions be printed in the St. Johnsbury Caledonian, a copy be spread upon the minutes of the Grange, and a copy be sent to Sister Badger.

HARVEY BURBANK, Committee.
E. J. STANTON, Resolutions.
Danville, Vt., Sept. 12, 1914.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our most sincere gratitude to the many friends who, by their acts of kindness and words of sympathy, endeavored to make less heavy the bereavement that has fallen upon us. Especially would we mention the many friends, neighbors and school for their beautiful floral tributes and hope that all will feel that their helpfulness and sympathy are fully appreciated and will be gratefully remembered.

MR. AND MRS. HARVEY DANFORTH AND FAMILY.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors and bearers for their kindness and sympathy at the time of the death of our loving mother.

WILLIS BROWN AND FAMILY.
West Danville, Vt., Sept. 22, 1914.

FOR SALE

Village home with about two acres land on Main street near station, St. Johnsbury Center, Vt. For particulars inquire of Mrs. John Morrison.

ST. JOHNSBURY TRIO.

ELIZABETH S. PECK, Violinist.
RAYMOND R. LAUGHLIN, Cellist.
NANCY E. BROWN, Pianist.
Will accept engagements for weddings, musicals, clubs and other organizations. For terms apply to Miss Brown, 27 Spring St. Tel. 181-W.

Pupil Nurses

male and female, wanted at the Taunton State Hospital. Training School for Nurses. For particulars, address

DR. ARTHUR V. GOSS, Sept., Taunton State Hospital, Taunton, Mass.

G. J. Olen & Co., Newport, Vt.

VERMONT FARMS
Real Estate of all Descriptions
Farms with Stock, Crops and Tools
SEND FOR FREE CATALOGUE

Salesmen Wanted

to Advertise Cigars. Easy work. Earn $90 monthly and all traveling expenses. Experience unnecessary. Also handle popular Cigarettes and Tobacco.

NORENE CIGAR CO., New York, N. Y.

WANTED

Competent man to take care of stickers or four-head woodworking moulders. Must be able to set up machines and keep cutters in order. Please give age, references, experience and state salary expected. Permanent position for right man.

PORTER SCREEN CO., Winooski, Vt.

FOR SALE

Registered Holstein Bulls, grandsons of the Great Pontiac Kordyke, from A. R. O. dams.

W. B. D. DDD & SON, North Hero, Vt.

GOVERNMENT BANKS

In any financial crisis, such as this country had presented early in August, the Nation looks to the Government and the National Banks for a successful solving of the difficulties.

The National Banks and the National Currency Association, co-operating with the Government, averted what might have been a serious situation for the business interests of the United States.

The First National Bank, under U. S. Government Supervision, cordially invites your account.

The First National Bank
ST. JOHNSBURY, VT.

U. S. DEPOSITORY.

Wanted, For Sale, Etc.

(Small advertisements will be in inserted in this column at the rate of two cents a word for the first insertion and one cent a word for subsequent insertions.)

COMPETENT girl for general housework wanted. Three in family. 10 Mt. Pleasant St.

TO LET. 6 room tenement with bath, $14.00. Suitable for family of 2 or 3. 32 Mt. Pleasant St.

TO RENT. 7 room upper tenement, 10 Belvidere street. Inquire of Mrs. H. N. FURBER, 10 Park Street.

FARM hand wanted. Good milker. Liberal wages. GEORGE A. NELSON, East Barnet, Tel. 34-3.

FOR SALE. Worcester, Kemp Manure Spreader, nearly new. Two Horse Farm Wagon, 1½ axle. Pair of Work Horses, nearly new. Six cows. Two cheap horses, 20 tons of hay. C. A. GERRY, West Danville.

EXPERIENCED young lady stenographer desires position. B. CALDONIAN.

FURNISHED rooms to rent, 24 Summer street.

FOR SALE. Horses for sale. C. H. ANDERSON, Passumpsic.

FOR SALE. 1913 Metz 22. New Tires. Extra seat. Fine running order. Cheap or cash. Address Box #